SPIRIT MESSAGES OVER THE DEAD.

—Messages fresh from the spirit world and an address "guided" by Ben Franklin and another spirit, with whom the dead sage seems to have formed a literary partnership, were features of the funeral services over the body of Mrs. Margaret Fox-Kane, last of the three spirit rapping sisters, in Brooklyn a night or two ago.

Brooklyn Hall, the headquarters of the Women's Progressive Union, Brooklyn's leading spiritualist organization, was the scene of the exercises. At least two hundred persons were jammed into the room. The windows were kept tightly closed, and it was wonderful that some of the women did not faint.

Mrs. Kane's body lay in a coffin in the centre of the room.

So many prominent spiritualists have not assembled in that vicinity in a long time. Women, many of them well known mediums, were in the majority. Next in number were old men with snowy hair and flowing beards. Some really handsome young women were present, with a sprinkling of intelligent looking young men. All were well dressed.

The exercises were opened by all present singing "Nearer, My God to Thee." Then a woman offered a prayer to the spirits and another made a long address laudatory of Mrs. Fox-Kane.

A long communication was read, which was said to have been received by Mrs. Henry J. Newton from Lea Fox Underhill in spiritland and addressed to Titus Merritt, who happened to drop in upon Mrs. Newton in time to get it just afterward. It described the grand results of Margaret Fox-Kane's work for spiritualism.

Another spirit message was received by "independent slate writing" and read:

"Well, there is no need to make any display about the body. The soul is all right. It is with us. Your friends will see you through all right. Have as little gush as possible."

"Greeley."

It was announced solemnly that this effusion had been sent down by Horace Greeley.

Speeches of the usual spiritualistic order were made by several of the company. "Bringing in the Sheaves" was then sung by the audience.

Mr. MacDonald said that despite contrary reports he knew that Margaret Fox and Dr. Kane, the Arctic explorer, had been married, though Kane had not the manhood to face the consequences and had fled to Cuba, where he died. Mr. Newton told of a complete typewritten recantation he had obtained from Mrs. Fox-Kane of her attacks on spiritualism, which he intends to publish soon. Mrs. Ruggies described the medium's last hours, showing that she had devout faith in spiritualism.

The sensation of the evening for the spiritualists was the address of J. Clegg Wright. He spoke fervidly, waving his arms vigorously, but with his eyes closed throughout, which indicates that the speaker is under a spirit "guide." He said Margaret Fox-Kane was greater than Plato, Caesar or George Washington; that it made no difference what her moral character had been, that nature was the only rule of life and that Jesus Christ was the first great spiritualist, though spiritualism was the foe of all religion.

After his speech Mrs. Burnham requested that Wright would give the name of his "guide." With much show of impressiveness Wright declared that he was distinctly aware of two "guides"—one named George Rushton, who had "used" him for nearly twenty years, and the other Ben Franklin, who had "used" him only twice before.

A MYSTERY EXPLAINED.—Why does not a man weigh a pound more immediately after eating a pound weight of food? A little reflection will readily explain this apparent mystery. During the process of mastication, deglutition, etc., certain muscles are brought into active play, and the exercise of any muscle necessitates a temporary waste of its tissues, and a certain amount of carbon is eliminated and passes off during the course of the meal. This loss, however, is trifling as compared with that due to respiration and perspiration, both of which are increased during the various operations of making a meal. The length of time one may take to consume a pound of food makes but little difference to these losses, for if it is eaten leisurely there is but slight increase of respiration, whereas if it is hurried through both are abnormally accelerated. Hence, by the time the pound is eaten, the consumer has lost appreciably in moisture and carbonic acid.

I HAVE been a great sufferer from dry catarrh for many years, and I tried many remedies, but none did me so much benefit as Ely's Cream Balm. It completely cured me. M. J. Lally, 39 Woodward ave., Boston

AFTER using Ely's Cream Balm two months I was surprised to find that the right nostril, which was closed for over twenty years, was open and free as the other, and can use it now as I could not do for many years. I feel very thankful.—E. H. Cressingham, 275 15th St., Brooklyn.

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE LAND IN ALEXANDRIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

By virtue of a decree entered at the November term, 1892, of the Circuit Court of Alexandria county, Virginia, in the chancery cause of Castleman vs. Welch et al., therein pending, the undersigned, commissioners for that purpose appointed, will on APRIL 6th, 1893, at 5 p. m., on the premises, offer for sale all of that historic estate formerly owned by Caleb Cushing and containing ONE HUNDRED ACRES, more or less, and located in Alexandria county, Virginia.

This tract of land is improved by a LARGE TEN-ROOM DWELLING HOUSE with basement, large barn with basement, three tenant houses, large orchard, shade trees and beautiful shrubbery, with magnificent view of the city of Washington. This grand place was the suburban home of the illustrious Caleb Cushing while he was in official life at Washington, and the trees and shrubbery that he planted there are now in their fully developed beauty. The shape of the land is almost a perfect square, and it is one of the most beautiful, convenient and historic suburban homes around the national capital. It would make a valuable subdivision for town lots and villa sites, being on the proposed lines of electric and steam railroads, only about 2 1/2 miles from Washington, and on a commanding elevation, and in a healthy location for sale.

Terms of Sale: One-fourth cash and the residue of the purchase money in one, two and three years, evidenced by the bonds of the purchaser, with approved personal security, and bearing interest from day of sale, and the title to be retained until all the purchase money shall have been paid.

For further information apply to James E. Clements, 1321 F street n. w., Washington, D. C., or C. E. Nicol, Brentsville, Prince William county, Va.

JAMES E. CLEMENTS,
C. E. NICOL,
Special Commissioners.

I, H. H. Young, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Alexandria county, Va., do certify that James E. Clements and C. E. Nicol, commissioners, have executed bond in the penalty of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties as commissioners in said cause and in accordance with decree therein.

Given under my hand on this 25th day of February, 1893.

TRUSTEES SALE—By virtue of a deed of trust from John C. Herder and wife to the undersigned, dated April 24, 1882, and recorded in Liber B. No. 5, page 459, in the Clerk's office of the County Court of Fairfax county, at the request of the beneficiary named therein, I will offer for sale at public auction, in Accotink, in said county, on

MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1893,

A TRACT OF LAND, containing 97 61-100 acres, more or less, in Mount Vernon Magisterial District, Fairfax county, Va., being the same land conveyed by Ann M. Siles to John C. Herder by deed dated April 24, 1882, and now occupied by the said Herder, situate on the road from Pollock to Accotink, about one-half mile from Accotink.

Terms of Sale: One-third cash, and the residue in two equal installments, at nine and eighteen months from the day of sale; the deferred payments to bear interest and to be evidenced by the notes of the purchaser, and to be secured by deed of trust on the land.
